L-36 Thank You for the Music: Broadway's Outstanding Composers and Lyricists Framed for Your Wall

At the heart of the most successful shows is a unique and original score. These rare musical phrases, handwritten and signed by the composers and lyricists themselves, will have a place of honor on the wall of anyone who loves the Broadway musical and these special sounds of music.

A. "Make Them Hear You" from *Ragtime
This one-of-a-kind musical phrase, signed by legendary musical theater songwriting duo Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty, stems from Ragtime's climactic penultimate number: "Make Them Hear You." This powerhouse ballad is sung by one of the musical's main protagonists, Coalhouse Walker Jr., at one of the most pivotal moments in the show, where he urges his followers to use the power of their voices to carry on the fight for justice. This song could most recently be heard in the four-time Tony Award-winning revival of Ragtime at Lincoln Center.

B. "Schmigadoon!" from *Schmigadoon!
Celebrate "the most beautiful, wonderful, magical place of all" with this one-of-a-kind musical phrase handwritten and signed by Tony Award winner Cinco Paul, the creator of Schmigadoon!. This introductory song is performed as Josh and Melissa, a bickering couple with a marriage on the rocks, stumble upon Schmigadoon, a town stuck in a world of Golden Age musicals. Paying parodical homage to Broadway classics such as Carousel, The Music Man and Oklahoma!, this wacky wonderland of colorful characters ends up teaching the lost couple a little something about love.

C. "Defying Gravity" from *Wicked
You'll be unlimited when you take home this one-of-a-kind musical phrase handwritten and signed by one of Broadway's most celebrated and beloved composer/lyricists Stephen Schwartz. Featuring the iconic words, "I think I'll try defying gravity," this Wicked musical phrase features a whimsical drawing of Elphaba drawn by Schwartz himself. The soaring declaration comes from "Defying Gravity," the unforgettable anthem in which Elphaba decides to stop playing by everyone else's rules and embrace her own power. Schwartz's music and lyrics have made Wicked one of Broadway's most enduring musicals, with the score becoming a defining part of the modern Broadway canon.

L-47 Take Home Theater History with Frances Sternhagen's Best Featured Actress Tony Award

Take home the Tony Award for Best Featured Actress in a Play, won by illustrious stage and screen actress Frances Sternhagen for her role as Lavinia Penniman in the 1995 Broadway revival of The Heiress.

The Heiress, which ran at Broadway's Cort Theatre, now the James Earl Jones Theatre, followed a shy, young woman being courted by a gentleman her overbearing father believes to have ulterior motives. Sternhagen played the woman's aunt, bringing comedic charm and tragic ignorance to the role, while brilliantly driving the plot forward. This is Sternhagen's second Tony, her first for her role in 1973's The Good Doctor. She also rose to prominence onscreen for her Emmy Award-nominated turns on Cheers and Sex in the City. This shiny statuette is a one-of-a-kind collector's item that can't be replicated.

Winner is responsible for shipping costs or arranging in-person pick-up.
