L-10 Iconic Treasures of Broadway

There is Broadway memorabilia so rare, so unique and invaluable that they stand alone. Here are four pieces, signed by legends and now a one-of-a-kind treasure of theatre history. Most fans could only see these under glass or from behind barricades in a library or museum. Each can be yours to hang and display, to share with your admiring friends with pride.

A. The First Ever Broadway Bear: Carol Channing

You can own the first ever Broadway Bear: the legendary Carol "Bear-ol" Channing as Mrs. Dolly Gallagher Levi. For 15 years, Broadway Cares auctioned hand-crafted, museum-quality teddy bears honoring legendary theatrical characters and autographed by the stars who made those characters famous. The final edition of Broadway Bears was in 2012.

Wearing the infamous pink and red satin gown in which she descended the Harmonia Gardens staircase, this bear is signed by Channing, who passed away in January. The fabric is the actual material used in Channing's dress in the 1995 Broadway revival, as are the jewels in the choker. The pink overlays are hand-beaded and sequined, and have authentic red fringe, also from the 1995 run. The red feathered headpiece tops off her blonde tresses in an original creation by hairdresser Kevin Maybee. The mouth is the third designed for this bear as Channing thought the first two weren't accurate enough in size. Grab this charmer "Before the Parade Passes By!"

Original Costume Designer: Jonathan Bixby

Bear Costume Designer: Charles C. Crutchfield with Jean Evans and Kevin Maybee

B. Silver Goblets Given to Gwen Verdon During the Original Broadway Run of Chicago

"When You're Good to Mama, Mama's Good to You." These stunning silver goblets were given to the original Roxie Hart, the incomparable Gwen Verdon, by Mary McCarty, who played "Mama" Morton, during the original 1975 run of Chicago on Broadway. One goblet reads "Roxie," the other reads "Hart." The back of each goblet reads "46th St. Theatre, Xmas '76, Love Mary." This one-of-a-kind pair of goblets is sure to “Razzle Dazzle” and is an incredible piece of Broadway history. This lot also includes an original Chicago poster from the 1975 Broadway production.

Chicago first premiered in 1975 with music and lyrics by John Kander and Fred Ebb, directed and choreographed by Verdon’s legendary husband Bob Fosse. The name on everybody’s lips was “Roxie” when Verdon was nominated for a Tony Award for the role. Although the original run closed in 1977, the 1996 revival is now the longest-running American musical in Broadway history and continues to shine eight shows a week at the Ambassador Theatre.

C. Dear Evan Hansen Prop Arm Cast Signed by Ben Platt and Original Broadway Company

“You Will Be Found” “Waving Through a Window” with this prop arm cast from Dear Evan Hansen, signed by Tony Award winner Ben Platt. Worn onstage by Platt in a Dear Evan Hansen performance, the cast features the name “Connor” as written by Tony nominee Mike Faist. It’s been signed by the entire original Broadway acting company, including Laura Dreyfuss, Tony winner Rachel Bay Jones and Will Roland. You can own, “For Forever,” this iconic piece of theatrical memorabilia from this hit Tony-winning Best Musical.

D. Ava Gardner’s Personal Phone and Address Book

Appearing in 70 films, Ava Gardner is forever remembered as one of Hollywood’s most famous femme fatales. On contract with MGM from 1941-1958, Gardner was nominated for an Academy Award for her performance in Mogambo, as well as a Golden Globe and BAFTA Award for her performance in The Night of the Iguana. Gardner’s high-profile life included marriages to entertainers Mickey Rooney, Artie Shaw and Frank Sinatra, and friendships with Howard Hughes and Ernest Hemingway.

Gardner’s “little brown book” is a true one-of-a-kind treasure, filled with Hollywood royalty. Typewritten pages detailing people, favorite places and preferred services, this contact book offers an intimate glimpse inside the day-to-day life of this legendary star. Jotted down notes and doodles appear throughout. A handwritten “El Cordobez” appears on one page, referencing famous matador Manuel Benítez Pérez, with whom she had a brief affair. Contacts include ex-husbands Frank Sinatra and Artie Shaw, as well as Lauren Bacall, Maria Callas, Bill Cosby, John Gielgud, Gene Kelly, Shirley McLaine, Princess Grace of Monaco and Tennessee Williams, among others.

This invaluable collector’s item was donated to Broadway Cares by Rick McKay.

Opening Bid: $500 each

L-11 See Megahit Musical Hamilton on Broadway and Meet “A. Ham” and “A. Burr”

The winner of 11 Tony Awards including Best Musical, Lin-Manuel Miranda’s brilliant Hamilton has transcended Broadway to become a global phenomenon. Celebrities, politicians and VIPs continue to clamor over tickets to this groundbreaking show that seamlessly fuses American history with rap and hip-hop. Now, you and a guest will be among them on Broadway. Plus, you’ll get to meet the actors bringing to life - and death - the dueling duo of Hamilton and Burr.

- You’ll have incredible views from two VIP house seats at the Richard Rodgers Theatre

- Immediately after the show, you'll go backstage and meet the illustrious actors playing Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr
- Take home a Hamilton poster, signed by the entire cast

Courtesy of Brig Berney, the stage management team and company of Hamilton

L-12 "Wine and Unwind" with the Cast of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Oklahoma!

Audiences "Cain't Say No" to this year's winner of the Tony Award for Best Revival of a Musical, the critically acclaimed production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Oklahoma! Reimagined and reorchestrated for today, this Oklahoma! is both haunting and absorbing, shedding new light on this classic tale. Now is your chance to not only see the show from VIP seats, but join in a private tradition of the Oklahoma! company, their weekly "wine and unwind" at the theatre after the show.

- Experience this theatrical event from two VIP house seats at the Circle in the Square Theatre
- After a Sunday matinee, join 2019 Tony winner Ali Stroker, Damon Daunno, Rebecca Naomi Jones, Mary Testa and members of the cast, crew and band for their weekly "wine and unwind"
- Take a photo with the cast
- Take home an Oklahoma! poster, signed by the entire cast

Courtesy of the producers, stage management team and company of Oklahoma!

This experience must be fulfilled for a Sunday matinee before January 5, 2020.

Opening bid: $500

L-13 Another Op'nin', Another Show!

Experience the excitement of an opening night on Broadway with these special packages of two opening night tickets and two passes to the opening night parties of the hottest shows of the season. Join a host of VIPs, special guests and theatre lovers for the show, then rub shoulders at the party with cast members, investors and their friends.

- A. The Height of the Storm After an acclaimed run on London's West End, The Height of the Storm arrives on Broadway starring two legendary actors. Two-time Olivier and Tony Award winner Jonathan Pryce joins three-time Olivier winner Eileen Atkins to explore what happens when, after almost 50 years of marriage, life begins to shift and unravel. The Height of the Storm is scheduled to open September 24 at the Samuel J. Friedman Theatre.
- B. The Great Society A thrilling new play about President Lyndon B. Johnson's legacy, The Great Society comes to Broadway from the team behind the Tony Award-winning All the Way. Starring Emmy and Olivier Award winner Brian Cox as LBJ, this new play captures Johnson's passionate and aggressive attempts to build a great society for all. The Great Society is scheduled to open October 1 at the Vivian Beaumont Theatre.

- C. Freestyle Love Supreme Founded 15 years ago by Lin-Manuel Miranda, Thomas Kail and Anthony Veneziale, the hip-hop phenomenon Freestyle Love Supreme arrives on Broadway blending improv, freestyle rap and special guests. Every show is different, with performers taking suggestions from the audience and spinning them into instant riffs and full-length musical numbers. Freestyle Love Supreme is scheduled to open October 2 at the Booth Theatre.
- D. Slave Play Opening After an acclaimed, sold-out run at New York Theatre Workshop, Slave Play comes to Broadway. It's an antebellum fever dream as three interracial couples converge to rip open history at the intersection of race, love, sex and sexuality in 21st century America. The New York Times says Slave Play is a "furiously entertaining...altogether staggering new play." Slave Play is scheduled to open October 6 at the Golden Theatre.
- E. Linda Vista Linda Vista arrives on Broadway telling the story of Wheeler, a 50-year-old divorcee in the throes of a mid-life spiral and on a path of self-discovery. Written by Pulitzer Prize and Tony winner Tracy Letts, Linda Vista is a clever and brutal comedy that asserts "it's harder than it looks, being a person." Linda Vista is scheduled to open October 10 at the Helen Hayes Theatre.
- F. The Lightning Thief: The Percy Jackson Musical After a celebrated national tour and Off-Broadway run, The Lightning Thief: The Percy Jackson Musical is opening on Broadway. Based on the best-selling Disney-Hyperion novel by Rick Riordan, this new musical features an electrifying rock score and a thrilling adventure. As a son of Poseidon, Percy Jackson has newly discovered powers he can't control, monsters on his trail and is on a quest to find Zeus' lightning bolt to prevent a war among the Greek gods. The Lightning Thief: The Percy Jackson Musical is scheduled to open October 16 at the Longacre Theatre.
- G. Little Shop of Horrors "Da-Doo!" The highly anticipated revival of Little Shop of Horrors returns to its Off-Broadway roots this fall. Starring Emmy Award winner Tammy Blanchard, Tony Award nominee Jonathan Groff and two-time Tony winner Christian Borle, this iconic and spooky musical comedy will make you laugh, scream and yearn for "Somewhere That's Green." Little Shop of Horrors is scheduled to open October 17 at the Westside Theatre.
- H. The Sound Inside Tony and Emmy Award winner Mary Louise Parker returns to Broadway in the riveting new drama The Sound Inside. Written by Pulitzer Prize finalist Adam Rapp and directed by Tony Award winner David Cromer, The Sound Inside is an intensely intimate piece that explores the question of what one person can do for another. The Sound Inside is scheduled to open October 17 at Studio 54.
- I. The Inheritance Winner of the Olivier Award for Best New Play, The Inheritance comes to Broadway after an acclaimed London run. Written by Matthew Lopez and directed by Tony Award winner Stephen Daldry, The Inheritance follows the intertwined lives of three generations of gay men in New York City. This beautiful new play, in two parts, takes us on a life-affirming journey of tears and laughter, heartbreak and hope. This package includes tickets to both parts. The Inheritance is scheduled to open November 17 at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre.
- J. A Christmas Carol Following an acclaimed run at London's Old Vic, a magical new interpretation of A Christmas Carol arrives on Broadway this winter. Written by Jack Thorne and directed by Matthew Warchus, this immersive experience is full of heart and brimming with Christmas spirit. Campbell Scott plays Scrooge, a role his father, George C. Scott, played in the beloved 1984 TV adaptation. A Christmas Carol is scheduled to open November 20 at the Lyceum Theatre.

- K. Tina: The Tina Turner Musical Following a hit run in London's West End, Tina: The Tina Turner Musical is rocking its way onto Broadway. Presented in association with 12-time Grammy Award winner Tina Turner herself, Tina: The Tina Turner Musical tells the untold story of Turner's incredible journey to become the "Queen of Rock and Roll." Tina: The Tina Turner Musical is scheduled to open November 7 at the Lunt-Fontanne Theatre.
- L. My Name is Lucy Barton After a sold-out world premiere at London's Bridge Theatre Academy, Emmy and Tony Award winner Laura Linney returns to Broadway in the haunting new solo play My Name is Lucy Barton. Based on the best-selling novel by Pulitzer Prize winner Elizabeth Strout and adapted by Rona Munro, this luminous play is directed by Olivier winner Richard Eyre. My Name is Lucy Barton is scheduled to open January 6 at the Samuel J. Friedman Theatre.
- M. Grand Horizons Bess Wohl's new play Grand Horizons opens on Broadway this winter, directed by Tony Award nominee Leigh Silverman. Starring Priscilla Lopez, Maulik Pancholy, Ashley Park, Thomas Sadoski and Michael Urie, Grand Horizons explores a family turned upside-down and takes an intimate look at the wild, unpredictable and enduring nature of love. Grand Horizons is scheduled to open January 23 at the Helen Hayes Theatre.
- N. West Side Story "Something's Coming. Something Good." A thrilling new interpretation of West Side Story dances onto Broadway this winter. Directed by Tony Award winner Ivo van Hove with new choreography by Anne Teresa De Keersmaecker, this radical new production features 23 performers making their Broadway debuts. Filled with extraordinary dancing, this West Side Story for the 21st century is not to be missed. West Side Story is scheduled to open February 6 at the Broadway Theatre.
- O. Girl from the North Country Following celebrated runs in London and downtown at The Public Theatre, Girl from the North Country opens on Broadway this March. Written and directed by Conor McPherson, this beautiful story of family and love reimagines the iconic music of Bob Dylan. The result is a production full of hope, heartbreak and soul. Girl from the North Country is scheduled to open March 5 at the Belasco Theatre.
- P. Six Six comes divorced, beheaded and live to Broadway this March. After sold-out runs in London's West End, Chicago's Shakespeare Theatre and Boston's A.R.T., Six has become an international phenomenon. Six features Henry VIII's six wives reclaiming their identities while they rock out and "Get Down." Six is scheduled to open March 12 at the Brooks Atkinson Theatre.
- Q. Company "Phone rings, door chimes, in comes company." Winner of the Olivier Award for Best Musical Revival, Company returns to Broadway this winter, following a smash hit run on London's West End. This new, gender-flipping production stars Tony Award winner Katrina Lenk as Bobbie and the legendary Tony winner Patti LuPone, reprising her Olivier-winning turn as Joanne. Company is scheduled to open March 22 at the Bernard Jacobs Theatre.

This special, highly anticipated opening night experience does not include party passes.

- R. The Lehman Trilogy After acclaimed premieres in London and the Park Avenue Armory last spring, The Lehman Trilogy comes to Broadway. Directed by Tony Award winner Sam Mendes, The Lehman Trilogy tells the tale of three brothers from Bavaria and the extraordinary collapse of one of the largest investment banks in America. The Lehman Trilogy is scheduled to open March 26 at the Nederlander Theatre.

- S. Diana The highly anticipated production of Diana comes to Broadway this spring, telling the story of fearlessness, love and legacy. With a book by Joe DiPietro and music by David Bryan, this electrifying new musical follows the Princess of Wales as she stands up for her family, her country and herself while capturing the hearts of the world. Diana is scheduled to open March 31 at the Longacre Theatre.
- T. Caroline, or Change Tony Kushner and Jeanine Tesori's remarkable Caroline, or Change returns to Broadway this spring following a smash-hit run in London. Reprising her Olivier Award-winning role, Sharon D. Clarke stars as Caroline. Caroline, or Change explores how, in times of great transformation, even the simplest acts shake the earth. Caroline, or Change is scheduled to open April 7 at Studio 54.
- U. Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Tony Award winner Joe Mantello directs the revival of Edward Albee's provocative Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, coming to Broadway this spring. Nearly 60 years after its original Broadway premiere, this highly anticipated revival stars Tony and Emmy Award winner Laurie Metcalf, Olivier Award winner Patsy Ferran, Rupert Everett and Russell Tovey. Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? is scheduled to open April 9 at a theatre to be announced.

Opening bid: $500 for each

L-14 A Five-Course Meal for up to 10 Guests, Made by Joanna Gleason and Chris Sarandon at Their Farm in Connecticut

A true once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, you and up to nine guests will head to Joanna Gleason and Chris Sarandon's beautiful farm in Connecticut to enjoy a five-course meal made by this powerhouse pair. Gleason won the Tony Award for her unforgettable performance as Baker's Wife in Into the Woods and has been seen on Broadway in seven plays and musicals. A star of both screen and stage, Gleason has delighted audiences with her roles in Mr. Holland's Opus, The West Wing, Boogie Nights, The Newsroom and The Good Wife. Sarandon was nominated for an Academy Award for his performance in Dog Day Afternoon. He has played many memorable roles including Prince Humperdinck in The Princess Bride, Dr. Burke on ER and provided the voice for Jack Skellington in The Nightmare Before Christmas. Sarandon also played Signor Nacarelli in The Light in the Piazza on Broadway. Gleason and Sarandon met in 1991 while they were both performing in the Broadway musical Nick & Nora. The chance to go "into the woods" for a five-course meal prepared by Gleason and Sarandon is truly an "inconceivable" and amazing opportunity.

You and your guests will be provided first-class, roundtrip transportation from metro New York by Broadway Cares' year-round corporate sponsor GS New York.

L-17 The Ultimate Seth! Be a Star on SiriusXM, a VIP at Red Bucket Follies and Get a Set of Seth's Books

Deconstruct the master himself when you and a guest have "the Ultimate Seth" experience.

First, join the "ahmaazing" Seth Rudetsky live, in-studio for a show that's larger than life - it's "Seth's Big Fat Broadway" on SiriusXM's "On Broadway" channel. Enjoy a studio tour and sit down for a guest appearance where you'll be an honorary "dueling diva" and co-host with Rudetsky. See if you can match Rudetsky's sass and spunk and his knowledge of everything Broadway. Good luck with that!

Plus, on Tuesday, December 10, join the Broadway community and Broadway Cares' VIPs in two house seats for the annual Red Bucket Follies, returning again to the legendary New Amsterdam Theatre and hosted by "the Master of Deconstruction." After the show, go backstage for a photo with Rudetsky. Then, join him, other VIPs and major donors in a private, post-Red Bucket Follies reception immediately following the show.

You'll also get signed copies of Seth's Broadway Diaries Volume 1 and Volume 2 as well as The Rise and Fall of a Theatre Geek.

L-20 Legendary Portraits

Katvan is one of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS' most ardent champions. Since 1993, she has donated more than 80 extraordinary portraits of Broadway's most beloved stars.

And special for this lot is the not-yet-released Broadway Legend ornament for 2019: Angela Lansbury in Mame. This is a fabulous re-creation of our first legend ornament with an updated design. Lansbury is featured lounging on the moon with trumpet in hand and stunningly costumed as Mame Dennis. This lovely ornament was designed by Glen Hanson and the Christopher Radko Company exclusively for Broadway Cares. You'll be the first to have it!

- B. Hal Prince This magnificent photograph, also taken by Rivka Katvan, features the beloved Hal Prince in rehearsal for the Tony Awards. Prince's brilliance onstage, in rehearsal halls and from his producing office was matched by the warmth, kindness and generosity of spirit he brought to organizations whose task was the well-being of those with whom he worked and loved. A founding Trustee of Broadway Cares in 1988, Prince's great friendship and continued support for Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS gave us the ability to build the foundation upon which our best work has been done for more than 30 years and will be into the future. Prince, true Broadway royalty who worked on many of the most enduring musicals in theatre history, passed away in July.

This portrait was generously donated by Broadway Cares supporters Peg and Gary Wendlandt.

- C. Theatre Stars of the 1980s From the bright lights of Broadway to the experimental magic of downtown, artists of the 1980s played a vital role in shaping New York City's theatre scene. In his April 2018 T: The New York Times Style Magazine piece spotlighting the stars who got their start in New York theatre in the decade, two-time Pulitzer Prize finalist Jon Robin Baitz said, "You can see them all now as icons, but back then they were like ions in kinetic motion."

Accompanying this article was an incredible photograph by Neal Slavin. This portrait, now framed, is signed by all 21 stars: Joan Allen, Kathy Bates, Stephen Bogardus, Matthew Broderick, Michael Cerveris, Glenn Close with Sir Pippin of Beanfield (her Havanese), Willem Dafoe, Loretta Devine, Harvey Fierstein, Victor Garber, Ed Harris, LaTanya Richardson Jackson, Mia Katigbak, John Kelly, Nathan Lane, Elizabeth McGovern, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Cynthia Nixon, Sarah Jessica Parker, Amanda Plummer and Mercedes Ruehl.

L-26 The Warm Glow and Historic Legacy of Broadway Theatres Can Be Yours

The Shubert Organization's historic Plymouth Theatre was built in 1917 on West 45th Street. The Plymouth's first production was the play A Successful Calamity. Dozens of better-remembered productions followed including The Skin of Our Teeth, Present Laughter, The Odd Couple, Equus, Godspell, The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, Burn This, The Heidi Chronicles, Passion and Jekyll & Hyde. In 2005, the theatre was renamed the Gerald Schoenfeld Theatre in honor of the chairman of The Shubert Organization. The Schoenfeld is now home to the hit musical Come From Away. During recent renovations of the theatre, crystal lighting fixtures that had been in place for decades were replaced. Now one can be yours.

- A. This elegant flush-mounted ceiling crystal fixture is approximately 13 inches in diameter and hangs 8 inches. Suspended from the vintage embossed brass banding ring are nearly 1,000 crystal beads strung in 60 delicate rows original to the piece.
- B. This glistening chandelier features more than 1,100 Swarovski crystals cascading from the 26-inch tall brass base. It measures 18 inches in diameter and suspends from a 15-inch adjustable chain. The crystals are original to the chandelier.

One of Broadway's largest theatres, the Palace opened in 1913 and quickly became one of the premiere vaudeville houses, attracting performers like Fred Astaire, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Ethel Merman. In 1951, Judy Garland signed on for a four-week run at the Palace, fell in love with the theatre and stayed for a record-breaking 19 weeks. Affectionately calling the Palace her home, Garland returned in 1956 for another hit run. In 1967 Judy recorded the best-selling album "Judy Garland at Home at the Palace: Opening Night" live from the Palace. Located at 47th Street and Broadway, the Palace was most recently home to SpongeBob SquarePants and Sunset Boulevard.

- C. "The Judy Chandelier" hung in the mezzanine of the Palace Theatre, illuminating the legendary Judy Garland during her performances. At 27 inches high and 15.5 inches wide, this dazzling chandelier features more than 100 crystals. This stunning piece of theatre history is a true treasure and the perfect addition to any home.

L-30 Slide on Down to Broadway

- A. Autographed Network House Board The limited-run production of Network spent 30 electrifying weeks on Broadway at the Belasco Theatre. Bryan Cranston won the Tony Award for Best Actor for his performance as Howard Beale, the news anchor who unravels live on screen. Featuring a cast of 23, the run was extended three times due to critical acclaim and popular demand. Hanging in the Belasco lobby for all 184 performances was the "house board," which lists each of the cast members' names on individual, removable "snipes." The Network house board measures 26 inches by 42 inches. Each cast member, including Cranston, Tony Goldwyn and Tatiana Maslany, signed the "snipe" with their name on this original house board. There is truly nothing like it.
- B. Autographed House Board from Broadway's *Come From Away Tony Award-winning Come From Away has captured the hearts of Broadway audiences, telling the remarkable true story of 7,000 stranded passengers and the small town in Newfoundland that welcomed them on 9/11. This breathtaking musical emphasizes the power of human kindness. Hanging in the Schoenfeld Theatre lobby is the "house board," which lists each of the cast members' names on individual, removable "snipes." Each of the 18 current cast members signed the "snipe" with their name on this original house board. This one-of-a-kind piece of Broadway history is a warm "Welcome to the Rock" that will serve as a constant reminder that "You are Here."

L-33 Your Wicked Friends Will Be Emerald With Envy When You Get Elphaba’s Famed Green Glow

Experience Ozian magic backstage at Broadway’s Gershwin Theatre when you are transformed by Elphaba’s “green glow” for a performance of Wicked. You and a guest will arrive at the theater for an afternoon of magic and wonder.

Your visit begins with a backstage look at the Gershwin Theatre to see firsthand the stagecraft and magic behind the Emerald Curtain.

After discovering the wonder and secrets of the show backstage, you will be taken to the Wicked hair room to have the rare chance to become “greenified” by the brilliant Wicked makeup and hair artists. You’ll get “the full Elphie” makeover – face, hands and hair – that would even make Galinda

("With a 'guh!'"')jealous! Go from ordinary to extraordinary with the magic of Elphaba's makeup and hair design. Your guest may join you for the backstage tour and to observe your transformation!

After your "greenified" transformation, you will be photographed and then escorted to VIP house seats for you and your guest to watch the performance. When you take your seat, fully green, you will be "the greenest" and without a doubt the most "popular" member of the audience. Wave!

Remember your visit to the land of Oz and night of greenification with a poster autographed by the cast.

L-36 Have Lunch with Tony Award Winner Gavin Creel

There will be no shortage of things to discuss when you have lunch with Tony and Olivier Award winner Gavin Creel. Ask him how it felt to win a Tony Award for his performance as Cornelius Hackl in Hello, Dolly! with the Divine Miss M., Bette Midler. Then chat about making his Broadway debut originating the role of Jimmy in Thoroughly Modern Millie or what it was like leading the tribe as Claude in the acclaimed revival of Hair on Broadway and in London's West End. Or perhaps you'll discuss what it was like to win a coveted Olivier Award for his acclaimed performance as Elder Price in The Book of Mormon on the West End. He can share with you the differences and similarities between performing in London and New York. Talk to Creel about Broadway Impact and being on the front lines mobilizing the theatre community in support of marriage equality. A principled and passionate actor and activist and a great friend to Broadway Cares, this opportunity to join Creel for lunch at one of his favorite Broadway restaurants is sure to be remembered forever.

L-39 Feel the Earth Move Under Your Feet During Your Walk-on in Beautiful - The Carole King Musical

Your two guests won't be "so far away" as they sit in VIP house seats as you make "some kind of wonderful" walk-on "on Broadway" in the Tony Award-winning smash hit Beautiful - The Carole King Musical. This is an extraordinary chance to take to the stage of the Stephen Sondheim Theatre with the outstanding cast and watch the backstage workings of one of Broadway's biggest hits.

- Begin by having rehearsal with the stage management team and being taken to wardrobe for your 1960s-period costume.
- You will discuss with stage managers which scene you best fit into. College students will join Carole King around the piano when she meets her future songwriting partner and husband, Gerry Goffin. Following that scene you will then step into the world of 1650 Broadway, the legendary building where the hits of the '60s were written and music's most legendary songwriters discovered at Don Kirshner's Aldon Music. Adult walk-ons will share a table in Act 2 at the Bitter End with the "Uptown Singer" and the band, as Carole King meets up with friends Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil.
- You will see how Carole King's world is recreated onstage when you watch the show from unique vantage points: in the pit with musicians; stage right and stage left with the crew; from the booth with sound technicians and from "air traffic control" - the stage manager's booth backstage. From here you'll see it all as only Broadway professionals do.
- After the show, your guests will join you backstage to congratulate you and get a tour.
- Take home a Beautiful poster signed by the cast to mark this special "one fine day."

Courtesy of the Charlotte Wilcox Company, Peter Hanson and the entire company of Beautiful - The Carole King Musical

Winning bidder must be at least 16 years of age. This experience must be scheduled between September 27 and October 13, 2019.

L-42 Lunch with Tony Award Winner André De Shields

When accepting the 2019 Tony Award for Best Featured Actor in a Musical for his role as Hermes in Hadestown, André De Shields shared his cardinal rules for sustainability and longevity in the arts:

1. Surround yourself with people whose eyes light up when they see you coming.
2. Slowly is the fastest way to get to where you want to be.
3. The top of one mountain is the bottom of the next, so keep climbing.

You and a guest will have the opportunity to discuss these rules and more when you meet the tour-de-force himself for lunch. These rules have clearly proven valuable as De Shields has had an illustrious career, spanning more than 50 years. He first made a splash on Broadway as the title role in the Tony Award-winning The Wiz. De Shields went on to win an Emmy Award for the NBC adaptation of Ain't Misbehavin'. He also was nominated for Tony Awards for his performances in Play On! and The Full Monty.

- You and a guest will join De Shields for lunch at one of his favorite NYC restaurants
- Enjoy two VIP seats to Hadestown to see De Shields as Hermes, messenger to the gods
- And as a special, one-of-a-kind gift, you will forever own a beautiful Hermes doll, handmade in De Shields' likeness by Broadway's Paul Aguirre, owner and creator of Broadway Dolls & Guys

L-45 Join the Frenemies of Broadway's Mean Girls Onstage for One Ferociously Fetch Performance

You will "see stars" when you make your debut in Mean Girls on Broadway for one ferociously fetch performance as two of your besties watch from the audience. Walk the halls as the newest student (or teacher) at North Shore High School and find "where you belong" when you appear onstage in both acts. Be "Fearless" in your big Broadway bow with the ensemble at the finale.

Your two guests will be "Stupid With Love" as they enjoy your performance from house seats at the August Wilson Theatre, then join you backstage for a tour and onstage photo after the show. Don't miss your once-in-a-lifetime chance to "Do This Thing" and make your Broadway debut in Mean Girls. It will be "groot."

- Two onstage appearances: after "Revenge Party" in Act 1 and outside North Shore High as Cady asks Aaron to come her party in Act 2
- Join the full cast onstage for the curtain call
- An onstage rehearsal with a Mean Girls stage manager and select cast members
- 2 VIP house seats to Mean Girls for your guests
- The chance to watch the show from the wings when you are not onstage
- The opportunity for you and your guests to enjoy a backstage tour and photos after the performance
- Remember the evening forever with a Mean Girls poster signed by your castmates

Conditions of Sale

The items listed are offered and sold by Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS under these terms and conditions:

1. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, highest bidder will have purchased the offered lot and (a) assumes full risk and responsibility therefore, (b) will pay the full purchase price and (c) will promptly remove said property from the Grand Auction area. All sales are final.
2. Theatre walk-on roles and backstage experiences are subject to a date that is mutually agreeable and must be booked after October 1 and before March 31, 2020, unless otherwise noted in the auction lot description. Holiday weeks are excluded. If a show closes before March 31, 2020, and you are unable to schedule your walk-on or backstage experience, Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS will return your winning bid. Broadway Cares cannot refund winning bids for walk-ons or experiences not fulfilled for shows that close after the New Year. All other auction lots expire one year from the date of the auction unless otherwise noted. Winning bidder assumes responsibility for making arrangements before expiration and no refunds are given if bidder does not fulfill responsibility. Winners of walk-on roles and backstage experiences must be at least 18 years old, unless otherwise noted. Successful bidders might be required, for security reasons, to sign agreements, releases and/or other documentation in connection with the walk-on or experience. Theatre owners and show producers assume no legal or financial responsibility.
3. In acknowledgment that auction lots with walk-on experiences or backstage visits involve access to areas reserved for a theatrical production's employees, anyone participating either as a bidder or winner of any such lot must be able to participate "as directed" by the production stage manager with the full support of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS. If it is determined that this is not possible, Broadway Cares will return the winning bid in full. If you are interested in a particular lot, please ask if any special conditions apply.
4. All tickets are subject to availability and not valid for holiday weeks. Additional specific restrictions will be in documentation given to winning bidder.
5. Purchases must be settled on the day of sale, unless the bidder has placed a bid via telephone or the Internet. Payment may be made by cash, check payable to Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, MasterCard, Visa, Discover or American Express.
6. Shipping costs are the responsibility of the winning bidder. A $15 shipping fee will be added for all U.S. addresses unless otherwise noted. Charges for international shipping charges are based on actual rates. Import duties, taxes and other charges are additional. All charges are the buyer's responsibility.
7. No purchases of walk-on roles or experiences may be re-auctioned, sold or used in any other promotion.
8. Unless otherwise noted, winning bidders are responsible for making their own arrangements for travel packages, dinners, tickets and walk-ons as specified.
9. Although Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS has endeavored to catalog and describe all items correctly, all property is sold "as is." Broadway Cares makes no representation or warranties of any kind or nature with respect to the property.
10. Auction prizes are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law. Please contact your accountant for guidance. Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS is recognized by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
