L-4 Cats print by Al Hirschfeld, signed by Betty Buckley

If Broadway diva Betty Buckley's debut story wasn't real, you would never believe it. On the day she arrived in New York City, Buckley booked the role of Martha Jefferson in the original Broadway production of 1776 and became an overnight success story. She parlayed that success into acclaimed film and television performances including Carrie and Eight Is Enough, but Broadway still held her heart. On October 7, 1982, she draped herself in a now-iconic fur and opened Cats at the Winter Garden Theatre. Her heart-wrenching performance as Grizabella, The Glamour Cat earned her the 1983 Tony Award for Best Actress in a Musical.

This sketch by legendary artist Al Hirschfeld features Buckley as Grizabella and has been generously autographed by Buckley.

Opening bid: $300

L-8 Legendary Ladies of Broadway signed Playbills

These acting legends have made their marks on the theater through their thrilling talent and skillful storytelling. Cherish their legacies with a signed Playbill from one of their noteworthy Broadway performances.

A. Elaine Stritch in Company

Elaine Stritch is often considered to be one of the greatest Broadway performers in history. Inducted into the American Theater Hall of Fame in 1995, Stritch knew how to command the audience's attention with her brassy voice and electric stage presence. She originated the role of Joanne in the 1970 musical Company, cementing the Stephen Sondheim-penned song "The Ladies Who Lunch" in musical theater canon. Propose a toast to the icon and enjoy this original Company Playbill, signed by Stritch.

B. Lena Horne in The Lady and Her Music

Lena Horne's legendary career spanned more than 70 years, leaving her mark on both stage and screen. She got her start at the Cotton Club in 1933. On Broadway, she made history as the first Black woman to be Tony nominated for Best Actress in a Musical for her performance in the 1957 production Jamaica. In 1981, she brought her musical revue Lena Horne: The Lady and Her Music to Broadway and received a special Tony Award for the show. The Broadway theater currently named for Brooks Atkinson will soon be renamed for Horne, making her the first Black woman to have a Broadway theater named after her. You can own part of theater history with an original Playbill from Lena Horne: The Lady and Her Music, signed by Horne.

C. Meryl Streep in Happy End

The incomparable Meryl Streep is often described as “the greatest actress of her generation.” Her career spanning more than four decades has been praised by critics and audiences alike, leading to a record 21 Oscar nominations and three wins. While she is well-known for her work on screen, she has roots in theater. She made her Broadway debut in Trelawny of the “Wells” in 1975 and received a Tony nomination for her performances in A Memory of Two Mondays/27 Wagons Full of Cotton. Happy End was her last appearance on Broadway, a musical play from 1977. You can take home an original Playbill from Happy End, signed by Streep.

D. Gwen Verdon in Redhead

A vivacious dancer, actor and singer, Gwen Verdon made her Broadway debut in Alive and Kicking in 1950, and would go on to originate famous roles such as Charity Hope Valentine in Sweet Charity and Roxie Hart in Chicago. Well-known for her collaborations with husband Bob Fosse, she won four Tony Awards. Debuting in 1959, the musical Redhead starred Verdon in a role written specifically for her and featured the directorial debut of Fosse. You can own this theater treasure: an original Playbill from Redhead, signed by Verdon.

Opening Bid: $350 each

L-9 Virtual Meeting with Alex Brightman and Tickets to See Beetlejuice

Say his name three times and he may appear on your Zoom screen. Alex Brightman has been haunting audiences as the titular character in Beetlejuice on Broadway since it originally opened at the Winter Garden Theatre in 2019. The Tony-nominated musical has been resurrected at the Marquis Theatre with Brightman continuing to play the “Ghost with the Most.” Audiences have been delighted by Brightman’s charm and humor since his Broadway debut as Boq in Wicked to his Tony-nominated performances as Dewey Finn in Andrew Lloyd Webber’s School of Rock and now as Beetlejuice.

Win a chance to see his macabre performance with two VIP house seats at the Marquis Theatre and learn some spooky secrets about the show in a virtual meeting with Brightman over Zoom.

L-27 Another Op’nin’, Another Show!

Experience the excitement of an opening night on Broadway with these special packages of two opening night tickets to the hottest shows of the season. Join a host of VIPs, special guests and theater lovers for the show and get a Playbill signed by the cast.

- Leopoldstadt The latest play from Tom Stoppard, Leopoldstadt is a passionate drama of love and endurance that follows the lives of a prosperous Jewish family who fled the pogroms in the East. Full of his customary wit and beauty, Stoppard’s late work spans 50 years of time. Leopoldstadt is scheduled to open Sunday, October 2, at Broadway’s Longacre Theatre.

- B. 1776 The Tony-winning musical returns to the Broadway stage featuring an all-female, nonbinary and trans cast, with co-direction by Emmy nominee Jeffrey L. Page and Tony winner Diane Paulus. 1776, which follows the events leading up to the signing of the Declaration of Independence, originally premiered on Broadway in 1969. 1776 is scheduled to open Thursday, October 6, at the American Airlines Theatre.
- C. Death of a Salesman The classic Arthur Miller-penned tragedy follows Willy Loman, a traveling salesman, as he and his family navigate life in 1940s New York. This revival is a transfer of the 2020 Olivier Award-winning production from London's West End, with Olivier winner Sharon D Clarke and Olivier nominee Wendell Pierce reprising their roles. Miranda Cromwell makes her Broadway debut as director. Death of a Salesman is scheduled to open on Sunday, October 9, at Broadway's Hudson Theatre.
- D. The Piano Lesson The return of August Wilson's Pulitzer Prize-winning play is set to feature Danielle Brooks, Samuel L. Jackson and John David Washington, with direction by LaTanya Richardson Jackson, the first woman to helm a Wilson play on Broadway. The Piano Lesson is scheduled to open Thursday, October 13, at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre.
- E. Topdog/Underdog Suzan-Lori Parks' Pulitzer Prize-winning play Topdog/Underdog is a darkly comic fable of brotherly love and family identity. Tony winner Kenny Leon will direct the play's first Broadway revival with Emmy winner Yahya Abdul-Mateen II and Tony nominee Corey Hawkins as the two brothers who come to learn the true nature of their history. Topdog/Underdog is scheduled to open Thursday, October 20, at the Golden Theatre.
- F. Almost Famous Almost Famous is a stage musical adaptation of Cameron Crowe's iconic Oscar-nominated film about 15-year-old aspiring music journalist William Miller who goes on the road with an up-and-coming band. With a book and lyrics by Crowe and an original score from Tony Award winner Tom Kitt. Almost Famous is scheduled to open Thursday, November 3, at the Bernard B. Jacobs Theatre.
- G. KPOP An exhilarating and euphoric original musical, KPOP takes audiences inside the culture-shaking, pulse-pounding, star-making world of Korean pop music and its totally obsessed 100 million fans. After an acclaimed Off-Broadway run in 2017, KPOP lands on Broadway starring real-life K-pop stars Luna, BoHyung, Min and Kevin Woo. KPOP is scheduled to open Sunday, November 20, at Circle in the Square Theatre.
- H. A Beautiful Noise, The Neil Diamond Musical Written by four-time Academy Award nominee Anthony McCarten and directed by Tony Award winner Michael Mayer, A Beautiful Noise, The Neil Diamond Musical stars Tony nominee Will Swenson. Diamond's real-life story comes to life through his hit songs "Sweet Caroline," "America," "Cracklin' Rose" and dozens more. A Beautiful Noise is scheduled to open Sunday, December 4, at the Broadhurst Theatre.
- I. Ohio State Murders Six-time Tony winner Audra McDonald will star as writer Suzanne Alexander who returns to her alma mater to finally reveal the truth of what happened when she was a student there. The production marks not only the Broadway premiere of the play but the Broadway debut of 91-year-old playwright Adrienne Kennedy. Ohio State Murders is scheduled to open Thursday, December 8, at the James Earl Jones Theatre (formerly the Cort Theatre).

- J. Some Like It Hot Based on the 1959 film of the same name, the stage musical adaptation of Some Like It Hot features an original score from Tony winners Marc Shaiman and Scott Wittman, as well as a book co-written by Tony winner Matthew López and Emmy nominee Amber Ruffin. The musical stars Tony winner Christian Borle, J. Harrison Ghee and Adrianna Hicks. Some Like It Hot is scheduled to open Sunday, December 11, at the Shubert Theatre.

L-28 Come Back to the Five & Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean print by Al Hirschfeld, signed by Cher

Come Back to the Five & Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean marked the Broadway debut of music icon Cher. The 1982 play revolves around a James Dean fan club, the Disciples of James Dean, who meet at a Woolworth's five-and-dime store in Texas. Cher's role of the waitress Sissy had originally been considered for Shelley Duvall, but after finding out Cher was in New York at the time, director Robert Altman (who also directed the film version later that year) encouraged her to read for the part.

This sketch by legendary artist Al Hirschfeld of the incomparable Cher was first published in The New York Times on February 14, 1982.

This giclée, part of an extremely limited edition, is printed on 15" x 18" hot press paper and has been generously autographed by Cher. The edition is numbered, includes the official Hirschfeld Foundation embossed seal and comes with a Certificate of Authenticity directly from the Al Hirschfeld Foundation.

L-35 Even More of Broadway's Outstanding Composers and Lyricists Framed for Your Wall

At the heart of the most successful shows is a unique and original score. These rare musical phrases, handwritten and signed by the composers and lyricists themselves, will have a place of honor on the wall of anyone who loves the Broadway musical and these special sounds of music.

A. "Wheels of a Dream" from Ragtime

"Wheels of a Dream," Ragtime's soul-stirring ballad originally sung by Tony Award winners Audra McDonald and Brian Stokes Mitchell, is inspiring to all who listen. In the Tony-nominated musical, McDonald and Mitchell portray Sarah and Coalhouse Walker Jr., two Black Americans who are navigating life in early 20th century Harlem. The pairs' powerful voices singing the soaring melodies of Stephen Flaherty coupled with Lynn Ahrens' rousing lyrics have cemented the song as a pillar of musical theater.

McDonald and Mitchell, who reunited to sing the tune at the 74th Tony Awards in 2021, signed this handwritten phrase along with Flaherty and Ahrens.

B. "Merrily We Roll Along" from Merrily We Roll Along

The song "Merrily We Roll Along" begins: "Yesterday is done/See the pretty countryside/Merrily we roll along, roll along/Bursting with dreams" This musical phrase of the first three words of the title song from Merrily We Roll Along, handwritten and signed by the legendary composer Stephen Sondheim, can be your dream come true.

Merrily We Roll Along will return this fall to the Off-Broadway stage with New York Theatre Workshop's highly anticipated production starring Tony nominee Jonathan Groff, Tony winner Lindsey Mendez and Daniel Radcliffe.

Own a piece of musical theater history and honor the memory of the late luminary Sondheim, who passed away in November 2021, with this special, one-of-a-kind musical phrase.

C. "Memory Song" from A Strange Loop

Treasure this piece of history: a handwritten musical phrase from the 2022 Tony Award-winning Best Musical A Strange Loop, signed by show's Tony-winning creator Michael R. Jackson. The musical made history when it won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama in 2020, before its Broadway run. In A Strange Loop, Jackson tells the story of Usher, a Black queer man writing a musical about a Black queer man. Toward the end of the show, Usher moves the audience to tears, singing of "one lone, black, gay boy I knew/Who chose to turn his back on the Lord."

The late Stephen Sondheim is considered to be one of the most influential figures in American musical theater history revolutionizing the contemporary musical. With a career spanning more than six decades, Sondheim, who passed away last November, kept a private work life and offered very few peeks behind the scenes.

This framed portrait was taken by renowned photographer Rivka Katvan, one of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS' most ardent champions. Since 1993, she has donated more than 80 extraordinary portraits of Broadway's most beloved stars, helping raise more than $250,000 for Broadway Cares.

Take home theater history with this portrait of the "relentlessly innovative theatrical force" behind shows like Company, Into the Woods, A Little Night Music, Sunday in the Park with George, Sweeney Todd and more.

Opening bid: $500

L-37 Virtual Meeting with Stage and Screen Star Nathan Lane

The incredibly charming Nathan Lane, who's also on the Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS Board of Trustees, has been making people laugh and cry - sometimes at the same time - for more than 40 years. His award-winning performance as Max Bialystock in The Producers was a master class in comic timing and his heart-breaking performance as the ruthless Roy Cohn in Angels in America shocked and stunned audiences.

This three-time Tony Award winner, who also just won his first Emmy Award for Hulu's Only Murders in the Building, will sit down with you via Zoom for a one-on-one meeting to chat about the ins and outs of Broadway, what it's like to be on the big and small screen and about his latest work. Lane's quick wit and disarming smile will keep you captivated in a conversation you don't want to miss.

This package includes:

- A 20-minute Zoom meeting with Nathan Lane on a mutually agreed upon date

Opening bid: $500

L-38 "Bruce Springsteen" print by Al Hirschfeld, signed by Bruce Springsteen

Bruce Springsteen - aka "The Boss" - is one of the most successful American rock musicians ever. Along with his backup band The E Street Band, he has released 20 studio albums and taken home eight Grammy Awards. He won the 1993 Academy Award for Best Original Song for his heart wrenching song "Streets of Philadelphia" for the film Philadelphia, and was awarded a special Tony Award in 2018 for his musical presentation Springsteen on Broadway, making him only one letter shy of EGOT status.

Springsteen on Broadway originally opened at the Walter Kerr Theatre on October 12, 2017, and played through December 2019. The show reopened at the St. James Theatre on June 26, 2021, for a limited, 30-performance run - the first show back on Broadway after an historic 15-month-long, industry-wide shutdown during the COVID-19 pandemic.

This sketch by legendary artist Al Hirschfeld features Springsteen doing what he does best - entertaining. It first appeared in the The New York Times on Sunday, May 7, 1995.

This giclée, part of an extremely limited edition, is printed on 15" x 18" hot press paper and has been generously autographed by Springsteen. The edition is numbered, includes the official Hirschfeld Foundation embossed seal and comes with a Certificate of Authenticity directly from the Al Hirschfeld Foundation.

L-39 Illuminate Your Home Like the Palace Theatre with "The Judy Chandelier"

One of Broadway's largest theaters, the Palace opened in 1913 and quickly became one of the premiere vaudeville houses, attracting performers like Fred Astaire, Bing Crosby, Ethel Merman and Bob Hope. In 1951, Judy Garland signed on for a four-week run at the Palace, fell in love with the theater and stayed for a record-breaking 19 weeks.

Affectionately calling the Palace her home, Garland returned in 1956 for another smash-hit run. In 1967 Judy recorded the best-selling album "Judy Garland at Home at the Palace: Opening Night" live from the Palace. Located on 47th Street and Broadway, the Palace was most recently home to SpongeBob SquarePants and Sunset Boulevard before undergoing its current multi-year renovation.

"The Judy Chandelier" hung in the mezzanine of the Palace Theatre, illuminating the legendary Judy Garland during her performances. At 27 inches high and 15.5 inches wide, this dazzling chandelier features more than 100 crystals. A stunning piece of theater history, it's a true treasure and the perfect addition to any home. It's already wired, so with the right electrician, it can brighten up your home. The lucky winner will receive an original Playbill from Garland's 1951 engagement, as well as two books about the star: The Complete Judy Garland by Emily R. Coleman and Judy Garland: The Day-by-Day Chronicle of a Legend by Scott Schechter.

Opening bid: $800

L-40 Virtual Meeting with Tony Winner Jesse Tyler Ferguson and Tickets to See Take Me Out

Jesse Tyler Ferguson is perhaps best-known from his Emmy Award-nominated performance as Mitchell Pritchett in the ABC's long-running comedy Modern Family. But his acting roots are in theater. He made his Broadway debut in the 1998 revival of On the Town and was in the original Broadway cast of The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. He won a 2022 Tony Award for his performance in the Tony-winning revival of Take Me Out.

Chat with Ferguson in a one-on-one Zoom meeting about his acclaimed performances and anything else you're curious about, as well as witness his return to the role of Mason Marzac when Take Me Out comes back to Broadway for a limited run beginning in October.

This package includes:

- A 20-minute Zoom meeting with Jesse Tyler Ferguson on a mutually agreed upon date
- Two VIP house seats to see Take Me Out on Broadway on a mutually agreed upon date before January 22, 2023

Opening bid: $500

L-41 Virtual Meeting with Broadway's Beloved Bernadette Peters

Beloved Broadway star Bernadette Peters, a longtime friend of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, has a distinctly unique voice as both an artist and an advocate. She made her Broadway debut in The Most Happy Fella, but it was her starring role as Ruby in the 1966 original Off-Off-Broadway production of Dames at Sea that first pinned her as a performer audiences couldn't take their eyes off of.

Sit down for an online chat with the Broadway Cares trustee and three-time Tony Award winner. Learn about her amazing career, spanning shows like George M!, Into the Woods, Annie Get Your Gun and Follies. You'll also see what she is like off the stage and out of character, including her love of animals and what compelled her to co-found Broadway Barks, her annual pet adoption event.

This package includes:

- A 20-minute Zoom meeting with Bernadette Peters on a mutually agreed upon date

Opening bid: $500

L-42 Sunday in the Park with George print by Al Hirschfeld, signed by Bernadette Peters and Mandy Patinkin

"There are worse things than staring at the water as you're posing for a picture being painted by your lover in the middle of the summer on an island in the river on a Sunday!"

Those are the famous lyrics sung by the incomparable Bernadette Peters in the opening scene of Stephen Sondheim's classic musical Sunday in the Park with George. The show premiered at the Booth Theatre in 1984 and earned 10 Tony Award nominations, including nods for its two leading actors, Peters and Mandy Patinkin.

This sketch by legendary artist Al Hirschfeld features Patinkin as George, Peters as Dot and the other members of the original cast. It first appeared in the The New York Times on Sunday, April 29, 1984.

This giclée, part of an extremely limited edition, is printed on 15" x 18" hot press paper and has been generously autographed by Patinkin and Peters. L-43 Virtual Meeting with Jonathan Groff and Lea Michele and Tickets to See Funny Girl

You shall know the wonder of Spring Awakening stars Lea Michele and Jonathan Groff. The two rose to fame together as Wendla and Melchior in the original Broadway cast of Spring Awakening, and have continued to impress across stage and screen. Michele earned an Emmy nomination for her role as Rachel Berry in six seasons of Glee. Groff voiced Kristoff in the Oscar-winning Disney animated film Frozen, and earned a Tony nomination for his role as King George III in the original Broadway cast of Hamilton.

Michele gloriously returned to Broadway this month for the first time since Spring Awakening appearing as Fanny Brice in Funny Girl, fulfilling a lifelong dream. Groff will return to the stage this fall in the highly anticipated New York Theatre Workshop production of Stephen Sondheim's Merrily We Roll Along playing opposite Daniel Radcliffe and Lindsey Mendez.

In addition to your one-on-one chat with Michele and Groff, you can witness her performance, which received seven standing ovations on her opening night.

This package includes:

- A 20-minute meeting via Zoom with Lea Michele and Jonathan Groff on a mutually agreed upon date.
- Two VIP house seats to see Funny Girl on Broadway on a mutually agreed upon date
